“Exquisite...

Powerful Energy... Warming, Earthy and Spiritual”

Reviewers

Monday Magazine, BC Jaiya, “blends World Music, Early Music, Celtic and Jazz into a warming acoustic stew that is both earthy and spiritual.”

PanGaia Magazine, USA “Firedance and Beltane, two breathtaking albums. Most highly recommended!”

Zeitgeist, UK “I’m confident anyone with an actual soul will find this a warm and intoxicating brew.”

Briarpatch Magazine, Canada An “uplifting invitation to celebrate the company of friends, the awakening of the earth and the return of the sun. ... This powerful energy works to unify the diverse range of music artfully presented here.”

Fans

The Metaphysical Music Man, USA “The singing, musicianship, arrangements, and engineering are all uniformly superb. This CD is a joy to hear from beginning to end and start all over again.”

Lawrence Wise And The Cosmic Funk Orchestra, USA (Broadjam fan) “When I reviewed Jaiya, I was utterly amazed. I thought for sure that this British Columbian trio hailed from the UK. They are just THAT convincing. Listen, and dream.

The Wild Hunt Blog, USA "the CD (Beltane) has been blessed with two fine vocalists in Miranda Brown and Lael Whitehead. Not only is it a strong spiritual and artistic statement, but it shows a band that is growing and evolving in their art... a fine release by the band."

Blissaquamarine.net, UK

An "astonishingly beautiful and poetic expression of nature mysticism... Another very impressive offering from this band."
