

Firedance: Songs for Winter Solstice Album

Track 3

To Drive the Cold Winter Away

Traditional

All hail to the days that merit more praise
Than all the rest of the year
And welcome the nights that double delights
As well for the poor as the peer!

Good fortune attend each merry man's friend
That doth but the best that he may,
Forgetting old wrongs with carols and songs
To drive the cold winter away.

Tis ill for a mind to anger inclined
To think of small injuries now,
If wrath be to seek, do not lend her your cheek
Nor let her inhabit thy brow.

Cross out of thy books malevolent looks
Both beauty and youth's decay
And wholly consort with mirth and sport
To drive the cold winter away.

This time of the year is spent in good cheer
And neighbours together do meet
To sit by the fire, with friendly desire,
Each other in love to greet.

Old grudges forgot are put in the pot,
All sorrows aside they lay,
The old and the young doth carol this song,
To drive the cold winter away.

When sweet Yuletide comes in like a bride
With holly and ivy clad,
In the dark of the year, much mirth and good cheer
In every household is had.

The country guise is then to devise
Some gambols of Yuletide play,
Whereat the young men do the best that they can
To drive the cold winter away.
